Series Opens Here Saturday Night

HALIBURTON MIDGETS REACH ONTARIO FINALS

Could this be the year that Haliburton will have its first hockey championship? The Haliburton Midgets, showing plenty of class and championship form, have disposed of Little Britain and Stroud, and this Saturday night at the Haliburton Arena they meet Belmont in the first game of a best of three series in the All-Ontario Midget 'D' Finals.

This is the first time that a Haliburton team has reached the finals in O.M.H.A. playoffs.

Right from the beginning of the season this team looked like a winner and so far they have proven their critics to be right.

Backed up by steady netminding on the part of Louie Dummitt and a strong defence and plenty of speedy forwards who know how to put the puck in the net, the Haliburton crew should and can go all the way.

If this team can win a championship what a thrill it will be not only for the team, but also for the hockey fans of Haliburton and surrounding area.

The Haliburton Midgets have a first class coach in Ken Wilson and a first class manager in Len Salvatori, and these two men deserve a lot of credit for taking the team to the top.

The Haliburton Midgets earned the right to compete in the finals when they defeated Stroud at the Elmvalle Arena last Friday night by the score of 8-4.

Paul Wilson with the hat trick led the Haliburton attack, Jim Allan came through with two while singles went to Gordon Scheffee, Craig Stamp and Jim Cowan.

You can show the team that you are behind them by coming out to the Haliburton Arena this Saturday night, April 8th when the Haliburton Midgets meet the Belmont Midgets. Game time is 8 p.m. See you there.

What Has The Church To Offer Young People?

Many young people feel the church has nothing to offer them and thus feel justified in excluding it from their lives. What has the church really got to offer the younger generation? Are the church and its teachings relevant in this day and age? Can Christianity offer as much satisfaction and excitement as the secular world?

Every young person owes it to himself to at least find out the facts and then intelligently decide whether or not to make a place in his life for Christ and his church.

"What Has The Church To Offer Young People?" will be one of the Workshops which will follow a Young People's Breakfast at the United Church on Saturday morning, April 22 at 8:30 a.m. Any young person wishing to attend the breakfast please contact Paul Carpentier or Julie Woodcock for tickets which are selling at 50c each.

Letters To The Editor

March 31, 1967.

The Editor,
The Echo,
Haliburton, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

With reference to your recent editorial, we do not knowingly allow a station, such as our satellite at Haliburton, to become unserviceable.

We are very conscious of our responsibility to the viewing public to provide them with the best possible signal. Therefore, on March 14th, when we received notice that there was trouble at Haliburton, we dispatched our Chief Engineer and an assistant. Upon arrival at Skyline Park, they found that a tuning assembly was defective. Temporary repairs were made which, unfortunately, were not satisfactory and to prevent further trouble to the equipment, it was shut down at noon on March 16th. The replacement unit was not available at Toronto or Montreal and therefore we flew a new part from Camden, New Jersey.

On March 16th at 8:00 a.m. we picked up the equipment, transported it to Haliburton and service was restored at 6:00 p.m. March 16th.

To the best of our knowledge the unit has been functioning satisfactorily since then. We have a local resident who maintains a constant watch and if service is not up to normal, he contacts us.

To reiterate our concern to provide the best possible service, we would ask that if you have legitimate complaints, we would be pleased to accept collect calls from you to our Chief Engineer, Bert Verwey at 726-6466. You can be assured they will be acted upon.

Yours sincerely,
Jack Mattenley,
Operations Manager.

Haliburton Lake Cottagers' Association Hold Annual Dance

The White Castle Inn set the scene for the Haliburton Lake Cottagers' Association Annual Dance held on Saturday, April 1, 1967.

There were several out-of-town guests and we are sure they, along with the other guests, enjoyed themselves to the fullest.

A large vote of thanks is extended to Paul Bowskill Sr., Chairman of the Dance, and his excellent committee for making this occasion so successful.

Upon arrival each lady received a miniature orchid corsage. These corsages were imported from Hawaii and this was arranged by Paul Bowskill Jr., who is presently attending the University down there.

A mid-evening buffet was served that not only pleased the palate but was most attractive to the eye.

Music was provided for the occasion by a five-piece band under the direction of Palm DeLuca.

Our thanks is also extended to Mr. Richard Sutton, owner of the White Castle Inn, and his efficient staff.

HALIBURTON NEWS LETTER . . .

Dysart Municipal Council have been working hard trying to get their budget in shape in order to strike the tax rate for the coming year, and unless a miracle occurs we will face the stiffest tax boost ever. According to municipal officials education costs could amount to an extra $78,000 which would raise taxes to the point to where the average home owner might be compelled to pay an extra forty dollars. We hope next week to be able to give the taxpayers better news but from what we have been able to gather so far the picture is anything but promising.

In 1946 John Wensley planted a maple tree and today, twenty years later, he is making maple syrup from this tree.

Negotiations between the Municipality of Dysart and the Canadian Union of Public Employees are at a standstill. At the outset of negotiations the men asked for an increase of 53c per hour; the council offered 13c per hour which the employees turn-

The above is a photo of Constable Leroy Nelson Henderson of West Guilford who recently graduated from the Ontario Provincial Police College, Toronto after successful completion of the Recruit Orientation Course. Upon graduation Constable Henderson was posted to the Peterborough Detachment No. 8 District. Constable Henderson and his wife Betty are presently living in West Guilford where he was born. We might say that the new constable was a student at the Haliburton High School and was with the R.C.N. for 10 years. It might be added that Constable Henderson is very fond of hunting and fishing.

Merchants Pull Upset To Tie Series At One Game Each

The Haliburton Merchants pulled one of the biggest come from behind victories of the season on Saturday night when they defeated the Lindsay Midtown Tigers 8-7 in a Tri-County Senior Hockey League playoff game played before a large crowd at the Haliburton Arena on Saturday night last. The win tied the best four-out-of-seven series at one game each.

The Lindsay team held a 4-0 lead up to the 11:00 minute mark of the second period and at this time it was just a question of how badly the Merchants were going to be beaten. At this stage in the game the Lindsay club were all over the Merchants and held the play in the Merchants end of the rink most of the time.

But at the half way mark in the second frame the Merchants started to realize that they were in a hockey game and that they were behind four goals. Led by Lyle Stamp who scored four of the Merchants' seven goals and who was definitely the star of the game, the locals scored two fast goals before the end of the second when Lyle Stamp and Jim Scheffee hit for pay dirt.

The third period was only 18 seconds old when Scottie LaRue scored on a pass from George Nicholls and it was 4-3. At the 2:10 minute mark Lindsay scored and it was 5-3. Five minutes later Lyle Stamp brought the crowd to their feet with two fast goals in less than a minute, but only 30 seconds later Pat McCabe gave the Tigers a 6-5 lead. In this see-saw struggle Jim Scheffee of Haliburton came back to tie the game, and three minutes later Lyle Stamp scored his fourth goal of the game to give Haliburton the lead for the first time in the game, making it 7-6. The lead was short lived as D. Bowery of Lindsay tied it up at 7-7 at 15:53 mark of the period. At this time it looked like overtime but with less than a minute left to play, George Nicholls set up Jim Scheffee with a beautiful pass and Jim drove it home and the Merchants skated off with a well-earned 8-7 decision.

The game was on the rough side and there was hardly a time in the game when a player from either team was not sitting in the penalty box. Curry (Pork) Whittaker of Haliburton was banished from the game in the early stages with a game misconduct.

Following is the summary:

RD? What's That?

It's trouble - trouble in the breathing system.

RD is Respiratory Disease - many different ailments with different causes, effects, and treatment:

Acute illnesses that may be cough, such as common cold, flu, pneumonia, and acute bronchitis. They are caused by germs or viruses.

Tuberculosis, a germ disease that may be acute or chronic (long lasting).

Other chronic diseases, caused by many different things. Examples are:

Emphysema (em-fih-see-ma, in which air is trapped in the lungs) Lung cancer. Bronchitis (swelling and excess mucus in the air tubes). Causes of these illnesses may vary, but cigarette smoking and air pollution are strongly suspected in all three.

Pneumoconiosis (also chronic) is damage to the lungs caused by certain dusts.

Fungus infections (chronic sometimes acute), caused by plantlike growths breathed in with air. Depending on the fungus cause, the illness may be called histoplasmosis, coccidioidomycosis, blastomycosis or other.

Diseases of allergy (sensitivity to otherwise harmless substances) The most common in the respiratory system are asthma and hay fever.

TROUBLE?

— Acute RDs are the major cause of time lost from school and work — Emphysema is second among causes of disability for workers — Chronic RD is a direct or aiding cause of about 9,000 deaths a year — More than 4,000 new active cases of tuberculosis are found in Canada a year.

All RDs (Respiratory Diseases) are the concern of your tuberculosis and respiratory disease association, sponsored by your Christmas Seal contributions. For more information contact your local association or your doctor.

UNIFICATION: PART THREE

Remember? It's 1987 and we have Uniforce, alias the Canadian Cobras, 100,000 strong, pure bone and gristle, master-minded by jut-jawed Joe Garibaldi, Minister of National Defence.

The Yanks are all upset because he is dickering with the Chinese, a couple of waiters from the Nanking restaurant. It's obviously a second Cuba in the making.

Joe gets a call from the White House. He states his terms, and hangs up. He knows his man. JD, president of the U.S. of A., is a tough cookie. He came up through the unions, like Joe, but owes his position to the huge wealth of his wife, Mary Warner, of the hideously rich Boston Warners.

Twenty minutes later, Joe's phone rings. It's LSD himself. "Now, look, Joe. We don't want trouble. We paid eight million for Alaska and I think five million for the Louisiana Purchase thing. Yeah, yeah, we know there's inflation. How about a straight eight billion, after taxes? You want ten? Don't be ridiculous. We won't go a nickel past nine. After all, we own most of the country anyway. A deal? Right. Take over."

It wasn't quite that simple, of course. Joe had to call a meeting of the War Council. This group had supplanted the Cabinet, which was relegated to such tasks as studying the Immediate Housing Bill, introduced in 1968, and the Old Age Unemployment Act, prepared in 1969.

But it didn't take long. Joe had hand-picked his senior officers. Marshall-Admiral Louis Latour had wanted to be King Louis the First of New Canada the Second. After Joe had explained how awkward this would be, Louis settled for the liquor concession at all martyrs' shrines in the country.

The others went along. Colonel-Commodore Nils Jorgenson of Winnipeg balked a little at getting no more than the remaining mineral rights of the Prairie Provinces, but finally acceded, grumbling. The rest accepted what they got: The fishing rights in Hudson Bay, the Rocky Mountains, or whatever.

It was beautifully planned, perfectly timed. At noon on July 1st, our national holiday, the Cobras struck. Flying squads took over all communications media, without a drop of blood being shed.

Nearly everybody was pooped after the long, hot holiday, so that only a few heard Marshall-Admiral Latour announce, on the 11 p.m. news, that Uniforce had unearthed and promptly squashed a Communist plot to take over the country.

Next day the full story came out, in all media, and the Honourable Joe was lauded for the speed and decision with which he had handled the emergency.

There wasn't an iota of resistance. Parliament was on holidays. The Prime Minister was ill and in seclusion. The universities were closed, so there were no students' protests. The Mounties and militia had long since been disbanded as needless expense.

Everything was perfectly calm. Business as usual. Most Canadians were starting their holidays.

A few noticed that there were a lot of new radio and TV announcers and newspaper columnists, but they figured the new guys were just vacation replacements.

Then the good news started coming. Corporation, income and sales taxes were all to be reduced. Farm subsidies were to be raised. Food prices were to be lowered. Free housing for everybody making less than $5,000.

I guess I don't have to tell you the rest. Popular movement demanding a republic and "Joe for President". Joe's sincere statement that he had no ambition except to serve Canadian people, through the democratic process. Big convention. Only stipulation for delegates was that they be members of Uniforce. Joe elected unanimously. You had to hand it to him. From President of the Destruction Workers' Union to President of the great Republic of Canada in a few short years.

That's all. Oh, a few people disappeared quietly here and there, but that was because of the new Relocation Act.

THE READER'S CORNER

By A. B. BONNER

As the title suggests, comments made here have root in what is read in the paper and the following not only have this foundation but are the result of reading between the lines as well.

The recent controversy over the Dysart Fire Chief seems to stem from something more than has been put in print to date and one wonders just what is going on. It appears we lost a fire chief one week, the firemen held a club over Council's head and we got back our fire chief the next week. This may or may not be the way it happened but that's how it reads, reading the lines.

Reading between the lines it looks as though the firemen attempted to explain their absences from fire meetings for which they were supposedly paid. So far they haven't done so. On the other hand, they may have been trying to justify absence with pay by showing they were doing other things for the municipality they were not asking to be paid for.

In any event, if there is something being done wrong and this is found out, there should be some wrists slapped. But, if there is some justification for what was done then an explanation would set the record straight without the wrist slapping. Nevertheless, when a man in the position of Fire Chief submits a written resignation he can expect nothing more or less than acceptance because he has shown he no longer wants the job. The firemen, loyal to their chief (and they should be), have every right to try and change the decision of both the Chief and Council. They should not however, have the right to force the change through threat of strike or mass resignation, such as has just been done. They were successful this time and now the municipality, of which they are part, is faced with the problem of employing a man in a position he doesn't want and the firemen are faced with working under a Chief who doesn't want to be. This is a situation which is both ridiculous and unnecessary.

Council is obliged to look after every tax dollar spent in the municipality and by questioning the spending of the various departments, is living up to this obligation. With wages for municipal employees going up along with everything else, they have to start demanding a day's work for a day's pay. They have already been told the taxpayers are going to expect as much. If this aim is not achieved the consequences could be most unpleasant. Firemen come under the heading of "municipal employees", fire chief included.

I don't for one minute suppose we are not getting our money's worth from the fire department because I believe we are, but this doesn't mean we should overlook any alleged infractions that may be taking place. Nor do I think the fire department itself has caused the ruckus that has followed. It appears to be on an individual basis not entirely related to fire work. It just might be that the subject of pay for meetings was just one too many straws for the camel's back.

In view of what's taken place, I leave it to you to decide Who's Camel.

How to relieve

BACKACHE

Use Dodd's Kidney Pills for prompt relief from the systemic condition causing the backache. Soon you feel better—rest better. Depend on Dodd's.

If you had a serious
legal problem, could you afford his fee?

You can now.

A criminal or civil action, or specialized legal counsel might cost more than you can afford.

Yet justice may depend on both.

Inability to pay a lawyer is one of the last remaining obstacles to justice within the law.

This is no longer a problem in Ontario.

On March 29, 1967, a new legal assistance act became effective in Ontario. It guarantees that no resident of this province shall be denied his legal rights because of the lack of money.

You choose your own lawyer.

You make application to him or your area director. Then a decision is made as to what portion of the legal costs, if any, you can pay. The difference is made up from the legal assistance fund provided by the Government of Ontario. The plan is administered by The Law Society of Upper Canada.

Neither the court nor the public knows you have received legal assistance. It is a private affair between you and your lawyer.

This is the most advanced solution in the world to the problem of legal assistance.

And its purpose is to render justice to every man under the law.

Due for completion in 1971, the Pickering Generating Station will be one of the world's largest nuclear power stations.

It seems like only yesterday this was a farmer's field

Today, it's the site of Canada's third and largest nuclear generating station. A powerful example of how heavy industry has grown in Ontario.

Ontario's industrial growth has helped provide a standard of living that ranks among the world's highest. It helped to create 102,000 new jobs in 1966—and higher paying jobs. Our wages are 18% per capita above the national average, and our unemployment rate stands at only 2.5%.

ONTARIO'S GROWTH RECORD

Ontario, Canada's industrial heartland, accounts for about 40% of the nation's gross national product, and contributes almost 50% of the direct taxes.

Ontario industries now export over $1 billion worth of goods annually to world markets.

By 1970, it is expected that Ontario's thriving research community at Sheridan Park will grow to enable 6,000 scientists and supporting personnel to aid Ontario manufacturers in providing new and better products for Canadians.

The Wind As It Blows

It carries a hat off down the street,
And almost sweeps you off your feet.

It carries the leaves all around,
And later leaves them on the ground.

Sometimes it comes in a whirling gust,

And carries with it sand and dust.

It can help, but it can harm,

With a hurricane it brings alarm.

A wild thrashing surge of air,

You can't see it, but you know it's there.

In winter it's a torment of bitter weather,

But in summer it's lighter than a feather.

The wind blows over land and sea,

Its always been something that's always puzzled me.

Carrying things with it as it goes,

The wind, the wind as it blows.

When the party's over a Cascade 40 electric water heater can have its finest hour

Seven-year-old socialites have a way of leaving more than a gift at a party: ever been stuck with a tutti-frutti-topped tablecloth?

These are the times a Cascade 40 can really win you over. It provides all the hot water you need to suds up a strawberry-speckled party dress, its chocolate-cheeked owner, and the pile of party paraphernalia you'll be left with.

A Cascade 40 electric water heater may not make the party . . . but it could save the day. For more information, ask your Hydro.

By ROBERT F. NIXON,
Ontario Liberal Leader

Looking back on the first thirty-nine days of the 1967 session of the provincial Legislature, the obvious high point was the maiden budget statement by the Provincial Treasurer, Charles MacNaughton.

As an election-year document, it was an attractive budget; there were no tax increases this time and there were expanded services for almost every section of the economy — made possible by increased provincial revenues. The only real losers were the homeowners of the province, many of whom must face substantial increases in education costs this year.

Although recent increases in education grants — up to three hundred per cent — have been made to communities in Northern Ontario, the government maintains it can't commit itself to any major municipal-provincial tax adjustment policy until it sees the recommendations of the provincially-appointed Smith Committee on Taxation, expected to be made public some time in May. The fact of the matter is that, by any standard, the present share of education costs carried by municipal homeowners is inequitable. If the provincial government were to assume more of these costs, substantial savings could be effected and municipal governments would be free to pass on tax cuts to homeowners and to proceed with the much-needed programs that have had to be shelved to pay for education. The taxation relief at the local level could be transformed into new assistance for farmers and for our senior citizens.

Many programs postponed by municipalities relate to the development of land for housing construction. During this session, the government made public details of its proposed H.O.M.E. Plan (Home Ownership Made Easy), and by and large, it's a commendable scheme which will help solve the current housing crisis in the province. However, H.O.M.E. doesn't help municipalities to provide the sewer and water mains that will open up raw land for private housing development.

In welfare, the provincial government has completed arrangements with Ottawa for implementation of the Canada Assistance Act — which will mean payments under most of the province's welfare programs will be made on the basis of need. It's a progressive step in one of the most important fields of public responsibility — the provision of funds and advice to relieve human suffering. But, before jumping to the conclusion that we have eliminated hardship through welfare payments, we should reflect on the fact that in Ontario 37 per cent of rural dwellings haven't got hot and cold water; 35 per cent lack flush toilets; 48 per cent are without furnaces; and nine per cent without refrigeration.

IN MEMORIAM

BAKER — In loving memory of William A. Baker, who passed away on April 9, 1961, and Jessie M. Fiske, who passed away on April 26, 1965.

Time may heal the broken-hearted,

Time may make the wound less sore,

But it cannot fill the longing

For the loved ones gone before.

Who shall say the grief is lessened,

Though smiles hide the tears,

Memories keep the wound still open

With the passing of the years.

—Ever remembered by Wife and Mother.

BAKER — In loving memory of our dear father, William A. Baker, who passed away April 9, 1961.

There is a family who misses you sadly,

And finds the time long since you went,

And we think of you daily and hourly

But try to be brave and content;

But the tears that we shed in silence,

And we breathe a sigh of regret,

For you were ours and we remember

Though all the world forget.

—Ever remembered by daughter Hazel and son-in-law Lloyd.

McKNIGHT — In loving memory of Harry David McKnight, who passed away March 30, 1965.

In our house a chair is vacant,

In our hearts a spot that's sore,

May God grant to us an unbroken circle

In our home beyond the skies.

—Lovingly remembered by wife Norma and sons Dale, Everett and Norman.

ed down. In the next round of talks council agreed on a hike of 18c per hour and that is where the matter stands at present.

We have been informed that our friend Walter L. Hobden has been released from Toronto General Hospital after undergoing surgery on a leg that he injured while skiing. Since the injury he has put up with considerable discomfort and when X-rays were taken they showed that a blood clot had formed on the injured member and surgery had to be resorted to. We trust that he will be around again real soon.

We attended the Friday night meeting of the Campbell - Reese evangelistic team Crusade for Christ along with over three hundred citizens of this area, and we cannot but help think that our community will be a better place to live in as a result of these gatherings. Many frown on such meetings which have an evangelistic flavour, charging that they work too much on people's emotions, but we certainly enjoyed the music, singing and trombone selections of Jim Reese. While we cannot say that we agreed with everything that Ken Campbell had to say, his message which concerned family life, he gave everyone food for thought. One part of his remarks had to do with religious instruction and he stated that a child of the Jewish faith received 300 hours of religious instruction while children of the Roman Catholic Faith also receive 300 hours of religious teaching. The average Protestant child can expect to receive 25 hours.

One organization in this area that seems to be going ahead is the Royal Canadian Legion Band. Every week sees an increase in the number of members. One thing that is helping out is the fine turnout of musicians from the Hall's Lake area. We understand that if more transportation was available three more members from there would be in the band. The amount of time expended by Captain and Mrs. Waywell to rebuild this musical organization is really beginning to pay off.
